Kid-approved chicken rice paper rolls

These little parcels of yum are a perfect way to throw together a tasty yet healthy dinner that even the smallest member of your family will wolf down.

Ingredients

- 16 rice paper sheets
- 5 tbs hoisin sauce
- 1/2 barbecue chicken (skin off, finely diced)
- 1 cucumber (cut into ribbons, medium)
- 1 carrot (cut into ribbons, medium)
- 1 avocado (thinly sliced)

Method

Place one rice paper sheet in a shallow dish of warm water, let it soften for 15 seconds, or until just soft. Place the rice paper sheet on a damp tea towel.

Spread 1tsp of hoisin sauce across the centre of the rice paper, then place a heaped tablespoon of chicken on top, a few ribbons each of cucumber and carrot and then top with a slice of avocado.

Fold the shorter edges of the sheet up over the filling at both ends to secure, then fold one of the long edges straight up and over, and finish by rolling it all toward the other long edge.

Serve immediately on a platter or cover with a damp tea towel and refrigerate until needed

Notes

- These rice paper rolls aren't authentically Asian but in my time I have found that most kids just aren't into shredded raw cabbage (if yours are then high five!)
