Dear Parents & Friends,

Exceptional Person

*The exceptional person I am going to talk about is... Ms Moloney.
Because she is very kind to us all and has a lovely voice. She also wears exceptionally amazing clothes, whenever we see her! Whenever Ms Moloney sees us do something nice, she gives us something called DOJO points. We ♥ Ms Moloney*

Written by a student for Ms Moloney

This Thursday we will be going to the cinema to watch Spirit Untamed followed by a play at Kidz Kingdom. There is no cost – however students are able to bring money to purchase popcorns etc. at Cinema – students to bring play lunch and a cut lunch.

School reports went home last week – if you have any concerns please feel free to contact your child's teacher via phone – as we are unable to have parents (non-essential visitors) to enter school buildings due to Covid19 restrictions.

Students will be dismissed at 3.30pm on Thursday- last day term 2 for students.
Staff only on Friday 25th June

Have a great week Mr Jeff Douma

Things to Do Over Winter School Holidays:

1. Go to the Zoo – e.g. Ballarat Wild Life Park, Werribee Zoo etc.

2. Have a Movie Marathon

While you probably don't want your kids glued to the TV for the whole school break, a planned afternoon or evening of movie-watching can be fun. Choose a theme or a genre for your movie marathon, or just have everyone pick their favourite movie. Make some popcorn, grab a few other favourite movie treats and some cosy pillows and blankets, relax and enjoy!

3. Visit a Museum e.g. MoPA: Museum of Play and Art - Children's Museum

51 McKillop Street, Geelong, Victoria, 3220 Ph; 1800 006 672

4. Go Bowling

10-pin bowling is a fun family activity. For young children or beginner bowlers, many bowling alleys offer bumper bowling, where the gutters are covered so that the ball stays in the lane. This allows the kids to focus on having fun instead of getting frustrated by having their bowling ball continuously roll into the gutter. Some bowling alleys also offer glow-in-the-dark bowling, which kicks up the excitement level a notch.

5. Go to the Library

If the weather outside is frightful, but you still want to get out of the house, the library can be a great destination. Kids can read books, look for movies to borrow or use the computers at the library, and you can find some new reading material as well. Many libraries offer special kids' programs during school breaks, so be sure to check your local library's website for any programs your children may enjoy.

6. Make a Family Scrapbook

If you have a digital camera or a smartphone, chances are you have hundreds, if not thousands, of photos on your computer that you have never printed off. It's a nice idea to get some of them printed and spend some time organizing them into photo albums or scrapbooks. You can work on this project with your children, or give them each a stack of photos of them with family and friends and have them make a memory scrapbook or album of their own.

7. Go for a Hike

Winter hikes can be a lot of fun, as long as everyone is dressed appropriately for the weather. Dress in layers, wear warm footwear and pack a few snacks and drinks before you set out for some family fun.

8. Have a Craft Day

If your children like to do crafts, this can easily keep them busy for hours. From painting or drawing to making jewellery or collages, the possibilities are almost endless. Provide them with an assortment of supplies, and see what their creative minds come up with.

9. Redecorate the Kids' Bedrooms

If it's been awhile since your kids' bedrooms have been updated, they might appreciate the opportunity to give their room a bit of a makeover. Whether you repaint, rearrange the furniture or purchase new bedding or a few new accessories, this can be a perfect project to undertake during the school break.

10. Set up Camp Indoors

If the weather's not the best and you don't feel like going anywhere, your kids might enjoy setting up camp in the house. If you have a tent, you could set that up in the basement or living room, or give the kids some sheets and blankets and let them build their own fort. Once the "camp" is set up, the kids will likely find it a great place to hang out and play games or read.

11. Have a Family Games Tournament

A family games night—or day—can be anything you want it to be. Try these ideas:

A marathon session of Monopoly or Risk.

- A tournament of card games or board games.
 - Head-to-head challenges in your favourite family-friendly video games.
- Having some yummy snacks on hand will make it seem more like a party.

12. Have a Dance Party

Have the kids invite a few friends over and host a dance party. Either play some tunes on the stereo or have the kids play one of those dance video games, if you have one. Dancing is a great way to get some exercise and have fun at the same time. Don't be afraid to join in the fun—you may want to warn your kids first, though.
