Welcome to Term 2

If you have good thoughts they will shine out of your face like sunbeams and you will always look lovely.

- Roald Dahl

Last Friday we said a sad farewell to a beautiful wonderful woman – Jean Foxall – she was 93 years of age. She was the cleaner at our school for many years and ‘retired’ from cleaning in her late 80s! Jean was more than a cleaner, she was also a great friend and was involved with the school, attending school functions as she was great-grandmother to Zoe & Shelby.

RIP Jean Foxall

A huge thank you to Sophia and Paul for their professional work in painting the breezeway – it looks fantastic!
